The Children & Young Person's Wellbeing Group Facilitator Volunteer Role

At SWW Mind, we know that the importance of maintaining and improving children and young people's health is so important. Healthy children are more likely to become healthy adults.

In the Children & Young People's Wellbeing Group Facilitator role, volunteers will facilitate peer support group activity sessions within community venues in Warwickshire, with guidance from a Mental Health Practitioner.

Sessions are anticipated to run weekly, in blocks of four different activities per group. Activities focusing on the '5 Ways to Wellbeing' will be delivered by external providers; volunteers will support and coordinate session delivery.

The aim of the groups is to facilitate peer support for children and young people, increasing their confidence and providing them with coping strategies and mechanisms for self-help.

Volunteers will coordinate the activity groups and support with their delivery. Specifically, they will:

- Help with the setting up of group sessions
- Support the delivery of activities and smooth running of the group, being on hand to listen to the people who use our services and offer signposting where appropriate
- Support in ensuring the group is delivered within a safe, welcoming environment
- Oversee practical elements of the session such as making refreshments, completing the register and collating group feedback
- Help to tidy up afterwards

This volunteering role does not require any specific skills or experience. We are looking for people who are:

- Keen to help make a difference in the local community
- Able to demonstrate empathy and a friendly and welcoming attitude
- Good communicators who are able to actively listen
- Willing to learn
- Able to demonstrate good organisation and planning skills and reliability
- Able to support and empower others to identify and make beneficial changes to support their wellbeing

- A quality training programme, including a recognised Mental Health First Aid qualification once you have been volunteering with us for a few months
- Reimbursement of reasonable expenses
